

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1875.

NEVADA'S EXHIBITION.

Fourth Day.

Yesterday showed an increase in the interest and excitement of the Fair. The crowd was augmented by large additions and every part of town presented a very lively appearance. Money is plentiful and is being circulated with lavish hands. All of the business houses are doing a tremendous business. To-day will only serve to increase the jam and rush, while to-morrow will cap the climax. We note these occurrences and items of interest yesterday:

Yesterday's Sport.

The attendance at the Fair Grounds continues to increase. A very gratifying increase was noticeable in the grand stand yesterday. The races were:

Trotting premium, $500. Free for all three-year-olds raised or owned in this State or California east of the water shed of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. Mile heats, two in three, to harness. Four or more to fill, three or more to start. First $350, second, $100, third, $50. For which the following horses were entered: Joe Yates entered Speculator; B. F. Sheldon, Sheldon; Sol Geller, Lady West, Ed. Forest, McDonald; A. K. Lamb, Washoe; Sam Stanaway, Bonanza.

Running premium, $500. Free for all. Four or more to fill, three or more to start. Half-mile heats, three in five. First, $250; second, $150; third $100. For which the following horses were entered: Geo. Wesley, Happy Jack. R. K. Allen, Jordan; Willis Hull, Chinaman; J. T. Kennedy, Lizzie Graham.

The Judges for the day were W. R. Chamberlain, L. T. Fox and Theodore Winters. The timers were J. R. Stuart and T. Winston.

The horses for the first race started in the following position: Jordan, Lizzie Graham, Happy Jack and Chinaman.

FIRST HEAT.—There was nothing particularly exciting in this heat. Lizzie won it in .51½, Jack second, Chinaman third and Jordan last.

Chinaman was still the favorite in the pools, selling even with the balance.

SECOND HEAT.—In this heat it was neck and neck between Jordan and Jack, but Jordan passed under the string a neck ahead, Chinaman third and Lizzie distanced.

Jordan now became the favorite at $20 to $16 for Chinaman and $5 for Jack.

THIRD HEAT.—Chinaman got off in advance, maintaining it the entire distance, and crossed the score winner in .51½, Jack second, Jordan third.

Pool selling now changed in favor of Chinaman again.

FOURTH AND FIFTH HEATS.—These heats were exactly alike. Chinaman first, Jordan second and Jack third. Time .52¼ and .54¼.

Second Race.

The trotting race afforded considerable amusement as well as interest. The colts that started were Speculator, Sheldon, West, Washoe and Bonanza, holding position in the order in which they were named. Washoe was the favorite at $40 to $10 for the balance.

FIRST HEAT.—Washoe won the heat in 3:18½, closely followed by Sheldon, all the rest being distanced.

SECOND HEAT.—Alf. Hines now took the reins on Sheldon. It made a material difference, for Sheldon won the heat in 3:11½, which made him the favorite in the pools $40 to $20.

THIRD HEAT.—Hines kept Sheldon down to his work, and won the heat in 3:12. The crowd cheered lustily.

At the Pavilion.

We aim to deal fairly with all exhibitors and to that end make daily visits there for the purpose of noting new displays and mentioning those not previously mentioned. Yesterday we gathered the following:

A fine display of horse shoes is made by W. J. Luke of Reno and Mr. McLeod of Virginia. They are neatly finished and good shape.

H. M. Barnard has a skeleton wagon, an open buggy, a top buggy and a two-seated one on exhibition. A critical examination show them to be of superior workmanship.

R. Bunsell, of Reno, has a substantial, yet light wagon frame there. The frame is made of seasoned oak, the springs of the best of steel and silver mounted. It is designed for an open wagon. Very creditable work.

A section of wire fence, contributed by a Wadsworth man, looks serviceable and ornamental.

One of the chief curiosities is some pieces of linen which is over one hundred years old. It holds its color well. It is the property of Miss A. Hubbard. She has several fine rugs also on exhibition.

That towel made from the first cotton ever taken into the State of Maine, over one hundred years ago, is a matter of interest.

Kent & Weeks have some very finely-finished wagons there. They are nice, easy riding and will "take" well.

W. J. Marsh, the agent, has placed two of the famous Magic Stop Organs on the platform. For deepness and melody of tone as well as for the readiness of touch, there is none better, if there is as good.

J. Stiner, of Reno, contributes several curiosities, among which we note, a petrified wasp's nest, petrified wood, crystallized quartz, quick-silver specimens and other minerals of interest.

A draught of the 5-stamp mill to be erected at the Centennial, is on exhibition. The draught is well executed.

Those flowers from the side of Mount Davidson are very fine. They are donated by Mrs. Buckingham and Mrs. Campbell.

The vegetables, from Bidleman's at Clark's Station, are among the huge things of the vegetable kingdom. The best that beat the best that beat the other best is among this collection.

R. T. Leete, of Reno, exhibits several fine watermelons, which are a creditable Nevada production.

The Champion Bee Hive, H. M. Cameron, General Agent, and W. Saunders, local agent, are the best we ever saw. Very fine indeed and are said to be the handiest made.

The Livermore, Cal., Pipe Co., have a sample of their work there. The pipe is well made and looks as if it would do good service.

G. W. Hatch, of the Reno Tannery, contributes several specimens of his work. The samples are good.

J. N. Jaquish & Co., made a fine display of buggy harness, saddles, robes, etc., which look serviceable and neat.

W. R. Chamberlain's fishing outfit is the most complete thing of the kind we ever saw. It is calculated to catch much fish.

Mrs. Vosburg may well be proud of her leather work. It is very fine indeed.

The wax bouquet, made by Hattie Lewis, a little Reno girl, is a very good representation of the efforts of Nature.

Mrs. Rosa Barnes, also a Reno girl, contributes two picture frames, one mounted with shells and the other with pebbles. The picture in one of them set it off to advantage. The frames are very neat.

Ella Edwards, of Carson, aged 10 years, worked a very neat tidy in colors representing autumn leaves. It displays much taste and ability.

The blue stone from the Lyon Mill and Mining Co., is beautiful, and forms a very pleasing, contract to the crystallized salt exhibited by B. F. Leete, which is next to it.

Articles for exhibition are constantly coming in and of course increases the display and the interest taker. Every evening the Pavilion is thronged with visitors who take a deep interest in the display. The band in attendance is the one known as Pryor's band, and adds much to the life of the scenes. The crowd is so great each evening that a promenade is almost impossible. The Fair is indeed a success.

To-Day.

A rich treat is in store for all who visit the Fair Grounds to-day. It is confidentially expected that 5,000 people will be on the grounds. To-day all the running horses will be strung out in line, and the jockeys will appear in full uniform. The trotting horses will also be exhibited. It will be the finest display of horse-flesh ever seen in Nevada. The races will be fine, as a glance shows:

Running premium, $1,500. Free for all. Four or more to fill, three or more to start. Mile heats, three in five. First, $800; second, $400; third, $300.

Pacing Premium, $500. Free for all. Four or more to fill, three or more to start. Mile heats, three in five, to harness. First, $250; second $150; third, $100.

All stockholders should be on hand this forenoon and attend to the election for Trustees of the Society for the ensuing year. We hope to see Trustees elected who will be favorable to W. R. Chamberlain for the Presidency. The good feeling and harmony and success attending this Fair is mainly due to the efforts of W. R. Chamberlain. He is just the man for the place, and will give satisfaction to horsemen, cattlemen and everybody else, and do more to make our State Fair successful than any other man that can be named for the position. Tom Fox would make a No. 1 Trustee, and Storey county is entitled to a representative—so is Ormsby—and let the others come from Washoe, and we hope some honest farmer will be given a place. We ought to have a Board who will make it a matter of pride to look after the Fair, and thus contribute to the best interests of the State and of Reno.

WHAT ENERGY WILL ACCOMPLISH.

The people of that handsome town, Reno, may well plume themselves on their Agricultural Park arrangement.

By the persistent energy of Messrs. Leete, Chamberlain and B. B. Norton, backed by the earnest co-operation of the people of the town, a splendid park, with as fine a race-track as can be found on the coast, a noble grand stand, Judges stand, stabling and comfortable sheds for horned and other live stock has been arranged, and all in the space of two years, in a town containing comparatively few inhabitants. The institution is now a permanent one, and will for all time occupy the lead as the recognized Fair of the State, and so to it all other like institutions must be subordinate. We honor the people of the sister county for the liberality they have displayed, and the whole State must accord to the managers of the State Agricultural Society the greatest praise for the energy they have displayed; for no public institution could be conceived that would tend more to the lasting benefit of Nevada than the one in question. Connected with the institution is a splendid pavilion, situated near the railroad and immediately opposite Chamberlain's hotel. The pavilion is lit throughout with gas and laid off for the accommodation of all who desire to exhibit the mineral, vegetable or other productions of the State. We advise all who possibly can, to attend the State Fair and assist with their means in paying the expenses incurred.

We would state that the race ground is more beautifully situated than many are aware of. It is about a mile from Reno and on the level plateau of the Truckee Meadows. On every side can be seen beautiful fields of alfalfa, the emerald green color of which contrasts with the sterile mountains that surround the basin. In the distance is seen the pretty town of Reno, the meandering waters of the Truckee, and in all directions handsome farm houses and comfortable looking cottages relieve the monotony of a general sagebrush view. It is the very best location for a fair ground in the State, and we might add, on the coast.

A continuance of the excellent management of the Nevada State Fair matters to build up the town of Reno as that in five years her population will equal any town outside of Virginia City. We wish the managers God speed and entire success.

RENO OPERA HOUSE.—The crowded houses with which the McGinley troupe have been greeted since the erection of their new opera house, certainly must be very flattering to them. Of course the crowded houses are the direct result of the satisfaction given by the performers. The playing of Sallie McGinley Greeley is splendid, and she deserves the applause and numerous encores she receives. Master Bobby shows much originality in his style of acting, and does several very neat things, notable among which is the dancing and playing on a violin at the same time. The Misses May and Alice McGinley are well up in their parts, and add much to the general success of the whole business. Mr. J. McGinley, the owner of the hall, is good and gives general satisfaction to all. The entire troupe have had considerable experience on the stage and this serves them well on this occasion. Their performances so far have been decided successes, and as such are patronized by the public. The opening of the Reno Opera House has been one continuation of success, and we fancy that "Mac" will receive much of what it cost him, from this week's transactions alone. To-night "Is He Jealous?" and "The Rival Lovers," will be presented, to be followed by a grand dance. These features will no doubt draw many to the Reno Opera House to-night.

A SUGGESTION.—We hold it to be a self-evident proposition that every man is in duty bound to consider and respect the feelings and the convenience of others, at all times and under all circumstances. This fact we recommend to the consideration of our theatre-goers. People sitting in the back part of the hall can scarcely form an idea of what is going on, owing to the noise and confusion created by people going to and fro through the aisles. This evil should be corrected. If it is absolutely necessary for you to go out for a drink in the middle of an act, try and go as quietly as possible.

PIPER'S OPERA HOUSE COMPANY.—Manager Piper's "School" proved a popular institution last evening, to judge from the over-flowing house that visited Dyer's Hall. Whether the instructions therein taught were the attraction, or, the distinguished character of its guests that made all anxious to be numbered with the list, we are not inclined to admit, but a friend at our elbow suggests, that any "School" comprising such a bevy of female beauty, wit and loveliness as that included among Piper's scholars would make an elysium of the dullest academy that ever existed. Truth to say, Jean Clara Walters as Bella Marks and Annie Firmin's genius and acting assisted as they were by Mrs. Belle Douglas, Augusta Chambers, Kittie Firmin, Messrs. G. D. Chaplin, Willie Simms, A. D. Billings, and E. B. Marden, made up an excellent evening's entertainment, fully repaying the overwhelming crowd that attended. To-night will be presented the great Wallace and Lawrence Barrett success of "Rosedale" or "The Rifle Ball", a Drama of intense and absorbing interest, woven around a tale of fiction at once weird, pathetic and amusing. The Company will again present new features, showing the versatility of this talented troupe. The admirers of gentle Eva as portrayed by the child wonder, Little Dorritt, will have an opportunity to witness her equally talented performance of the "Lost Hair," the stolen child, who like little Charley Ross, was stolen from his afflicted parents, and on whose recovery the plot of the play hinges. The developments will be found attractive and interesting. We advise all to secure their seats at the Post office to avoid the crowd. Saturday Matinee at two o'clock, will be presented for the last time, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," with its original cast of characters.

TUSCARORA NEWS.—We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting Mr. W. O. Weed, just in from Tuscarora district. He reports everything flourishing in that lively camp. Mr. Weed is a heavy owner in the Young America mine at that place. He says the mine never looked better than now, showing more mineral than usual. The mill will be ready to start up in a few days, and the bullion will be turned out in large quantities. It is claimed by mining experts that the Young America will prove a formidable rival to the famous Leopard mine at Cornucopia. We only wish we had some of the stock.

I. O. G. T.—The Grand Lodge of the order of Good Templars for this State and California is now in session in San Francisco. The lodges of this State are entitled to representation there at the rate of one delegate for every twenty members or fraction over ten, and one for the charter. Haswell Lodge of this place elected its delegates, who would have attended had it not been for the Fair. The number of members in the jurisdiction is 10,112. The Orphan's Home is reported to be in a very favorable situation.

AN AGRICULTURAL JOKE.—A very genteel appearing young man, wearing kid gloves, and carrying a lithe and flexible walking stick, thought he would have a joke with a rusty and venerable farmer on the Fair Grounds last Tuesday afternoon. "Halloo," said the dandy, "are you one of the judges on hogs?" "Was, yaas, walk right up and let me look at you," said the old farmer. That youth was soon lost amid the crowd, and no other judges on swine saw him.

ORDERLY.—Reno has been very orderly during the Fair, notwithstanding the fact that crowds have been here since it opened. Judge Gilson says that he has had no criminal business whatever. The wise-ones who predicted that Reno and the Fair would be run by a mob of roughs will please note this and give us a credit mark.

AUCTIONEER.—S. G. Howard, of Marysville, Cal., has decided to locate in Reno, and to that end has engaged a house for himself. He proposes to do all the auctioneering for this section and also to practice law. He is ready for business.

GEN. EVANS advertises a house for sale. As houses are very scarce in Reno, this one will soon find a tenant. Read the notice elsewhere.

JOHN SUNDERLAND STILL AHEAD.—John Sunderland has just returned from San Francisco with the largest and best selected stock of boots and shoes ever brought to Reno. He has goods to suit all prices and all people. He has a fine assortment of children's school shoes, which give more satisfaction than any shoe ever brought to this town. He is selling boots and shoes at panic prices. Call at his store and examine for yourself. He has also on hand and for sale, a fine assortment of shoemaker's findings, which he offers to the trade at a small advance over San Francisco prices.

A good business house for sale. Enquire at this office.

REMOVED.—The Misses Vance are now located on Virginia street, next door to the photograph gallery. They will receive at their dressmaking establishment and make to order in the latest styles, all kinds of plain and fancy sewing.

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE.—Any person wanting town lots in an eligible location will find it to their advantage to call on C. A. Richardson.

NOTICE.—Mr. Nels. Greenman is no longer our authorized agent. Our patrons will govern themselves accordingly. S. LEE & Co.
